HISTORY OF AUNTIES

When sisters Donna Silva, with her passion for ice cream and family, and Robin Green, with her lifelong attraction to Cape Cod and all things nostalgic, decided to go into business together, Aunties was destined to be. Owned and operated by Donna and Robin - and Robin's husband, Dan, Aunties sold its first ice cream cone on October 24th, 2012.

Located in the heart of downtown Dennis Port, a visit to Aunties will take you back to a simpler time when locals ran into each other at the town malt shop and chatted over an ice cream soda or a hot fudge sundae. We love watching new memories being created, too, for a younger generation. It's these little ones that keep bringing their families back, again and again because there's something special in the atmosphere at Aunties. And during the busy tourist season, we enjoy being a fun and informative destination stop for those visiting or passing through our charming little village.

Things are constantly evolving at Aunties as we grow and continue to focus on providing the best service and experience for our patrons. So - please - come on in and see what's happening today at Aunties in Dennis Port!
